Newsletter – August-September 2013

We have had an active and wonderful couple of months half way through the croquet season.

Everyone enjoyed a delicious potluck dinner at Debbie's. A relaxing evening getting to know one another better, playing games, and sharing food. Couldn't ask for more....

Our Beach Party at Sandy Neck was a great success with a warm, bright fire and a lovely sunset, the night was complete.

Ed directed our first 6-Wicket Tournament. We had fun, raised some funds for the club and plan to do another next year.

Maureen generously offered a series of six-wicket lessons to members on Wednesday, leaving a clamoring for more. Everyone agrees that she is super teacher!

The upcoming, End of Season Dinner will be held at the Old Yarmouth Inn beginning at 5:30 p.m. Folks should make a reservation by September 21 by signing up at the picnic table.

We have had visitors from Connecticut, Virginia, Massachusetts and the UK during the months of August and September. We have enjoyed meeting and playing with them and have enjoyed the diversity of experience they provide. We may see them returning next year.

All members are reminded that play continues through to October 30, three days a week. Play on Wednesday is moved up to start at 4 p.m. and will end at sunset. The summer days are wanning!

Winter dinners are planned for: December, (Holiday celebration at Days), February, (at a local restaurant), and April, (dinner at local restaurant). More information will be coming soon through email.
